

Snake Talk - 4

Learning Intentions

Students describe relationships that assist the survival of living things.

Daradgee Specific Elaborations

This experience may require students to:

- make observations of snakes as they develop through their life cycle
- investigate the role of snakes in their habitat and interactions with humans
- observe and describe predator-prey relationships

